RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 86 pages. LC Number: KF27 . V432 2008d OCLC Number: (OCoLC)309328754 Subject: Veterans -- Services for -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 sistance in obtaining entitlements through the TRICARE Health System and access to community resources. The Transition Assistance Advisor works to build a community partnership through the National Guard, Reserves, DoD services, Department of Veterans Affairs, Indiana Department of Veterans Affairs, the veterans service organizations ( VSOs ), and the local communities. The TAA provides communication and coordination between these partners. We provide education and support to all el-igible servicemembers and their families. A very important factor of this process is raising the awareness and the understanding of the available State and Federal VA benefits, as it - and the other various community agencies that can assist our servicemembers. Help is provided to the individual servicemember, ensuring that they are aware of the entitlement programs, access to metal care - mental care and benefits of TRICARE. There are many deadlines that require action, such as post-dental care. Servicemembers and their families needing counseling are advised where and how to get the help they need. Information is provided on insurance, such as Servicemembers Group Life Insurance and Traumatic Service-members Group Life Insurance. The TAA supports the VA and the local communities in helping develop job fairs designed to help servicemembers, veterans, and their families to find jobs. Assist-ance is also provided to our servicemembers in locating their lost DD - 214s. Transition Assistance is provided during pre-mobilization, mobili-zation, and demobilization. During homecoming events, information is made available to servicemembers and their families in the form of VA - a form of brochures on VA benefits, educational opportuni-ties, re-employment rights, and other relevant resources. At that point,...
