Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Lushai Hills: A Story of the Lusahi Pioneer Mission To name all the books consulted in preparing this little story might end in wearying my readers. Let me, therefore, only say that, acting on the kind advice of one who is himself a high authority on all Indian subjects, I have gleaned the Lushai lore, here given, from the writings of Government experts published in Blue Books, etc., etc., and out of all of these my indebtedness is chiefly due to the reports of Major Shakespeare, C.I.E., D.S.O., formerly. Superintendent of the Lushai Hills. I have to thank the Treasurer of the Assam Frontier Pioneer Mission and our two heroes themselves for the loan of letters and papers telling of their work in North Lushai. Being wholly dependent on the missionaries account of their work in the South Hills, I have given that in their own words, that the story might lose none of its freshness and charm. Much of interest, and en importance, has been withheld for want of space. This little picture is a mere outline to be filled in later by a more competent hand.
