RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 46 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in.Excerpt: . . . afraid you have had to do the forgiving recently, Jack. I expect I have been difficult. But I feel so torn these days wanting to be over in France doing the real work with fellows like Bryan, and at the same time wanting to be here with you and the babies and knowing I am perhaps more useful in London than I would be elsewhere. Jacks clear grey eyes were full of the spiritual understanding that had made her always so valuable a friend, and a woman must be a friend to her husband as well as other things. I know, Frank, she answered, but you are doing the right thing. If I didnt think so, no matter how I should suffer, do you believe for a moment that I would stand in your way 125 And catching her look, Frank replied. No, Jack, I dont; but I thank you for understanding. There were no letters delivered at Kent House on Sunday, but on each Sunday afternoon one of the men drove over to the post-office, which was open for an hour, and returned with the mail. It was important that Lord Kent should be kept in touch with every situation that arose, as there might be grave and tragic developments in the course of the hours he sometimes spent away from London. As he picked up the mail which was lying on the table in the hall as they entered, Frank extended a letter to his wife. This is from Bryan, I believe, Jack. Do tell me what he says. They went into the library where Frieda and Olive were already waiting for tea to be served. Jack walked over to the...
