With such a record as this, the past century has no reason to be ashamed; for its labors have been more than tenfold the labors of any other century, and its progress has been an astonishment even to itself. Twenty-second sentiment: -- Emigrants from Marlborough, both present and absent, -- Scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from Tropic to Tropic, may their early instruction prove a shield in the hour of trial, and assist them to fill with honor and usefulness the different stations in life they are destined to occupy I This was wittily replied to by J. W. Converse, Esq., of Springfield, Mass. The wind rose to almost a gale while he was speaking, so that it was with difficulty he could be...
