It is respect, love and respect bundled together for each member of the group as they traverse their twilight years!A story of love, adventure, wit and courage of old soldiers who are veterans of the World War and still laugh at their follies! The Colonel feels that this book will allow retired officers from the Defence services and others fro service backgrounds to understand the nuances of getting older and dealing with situations which appear more difficult in old age than they did when they were younger. He feels that seniors need to prepare themselves to realistic conditions before they enter the Twilight Zone!
