

1001 Events That Made America

By Alan Axelrod

National Geographic. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 288 pages. Dimensions: 6.8in. x 4.9in. x 0.8in. A highly readable chronologyone of those rare books that readers will enjoy having close at hand. Tulsa World For some, patriotism means flags and parades, for others its my country right or wrong. But its much more than that, and, as Alan Alexrod observes in this revealing review of our history, true patriotism is built on a bedrock of understandingof who we are as individuals and as a nation, of how our ideals and our democracy have evolved, and of what it really means to be an American. Its a challenge that calls for an open mind and a clear perspective on the people, events, and issues that shaped our societyprecisely what Alexrod provides. Just released in paperback, this popular chronology of key events in our history sweeps from 45, 000 B. C. , when the first intrepid Asians crossed the Bering Land Bridge, to the 21st century, which finds us the richest and most powerful nation in the world. This panoramic journey is marked out by more than 1, 000 milestones and turning points, each explained in concise, lively detail. Axelrod has a wonderful knack...
