Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the State Historian, 1909-10 The office of State Historian was established by the Legislature of 1907. Concerning its action in this particular I had no information whatever until I was asked by Governor Cobb to accept an appointment to the office thus created. In my first interview with the Governor, and before accepting the appointment he had tendered to me, I called his attention to the limitations of the duties of the State Historian as indicated in the act passed by the Legislature and which had received his approval under the title, An Act to encourage the compiling and teaching of Local History and Local Geography in the Public Schools. In reply, the Governor suggested that the work of the State Historian could be enlarged by subsequent enactments, and I was urged to accept the office in the hope that by added legislation the work assigned would be broadened to such an extent as to include the care and preservation of the public archives and the collection of the materials of our history before Maine became a State. Impressed with the great possibilities that such an enlargement of the duties of the State Historian offered, I accepted the appointment. In my first report, accordingly, which was sent to the Governor at the close of 1908, I called attention to the importance of enlarging the work of the State Historian, presenting among other considerations facts concerning existing conditions in the public archives of the State as disclosed in a report made by Professor Allen Johnson, of Bowdoin College, under an appointment of the Public Archives Commission. That report had not then been printed, but...
