When Sister Yvonne Maes became a missionary, her dream of trascending herself - truly giving her life to a higher purpose - became a reality . With her arduous childhood on a dairy farm, her years in the convent, and her training as a teacher behind her, Sister Yvonne was at last attaining her goal of promoting education and social justice in South Africa . Selfless, deeply caring, and above all obedient, she remained true to her calling and to her vows . At age forty-six, however, her life was turned upside down . Suffering from professional burnout, she attended a Church-sponsored retreat where she was seduced by her assigned spiritual mentor, himself a Catholic priest . Over a period of eight years Sister Yvonne found herself trapped in a web of sexual abuse that eroded her spirit and her faith, and condemned her to a life of secrecy and shame . The repeated sexual assaults left her powerless to reform, resist, or expose her charismatic abuser .
