It is a matter of regret that all of the papers presented could not be published in a volume of proceedings and distributed among the high schools of the state. It was impossible to grasp all that was said during the convention, although every address was worthy of careful study. The Commissioner therefore recommends that the State Board of Education make provision in its estimate of expenses for the publication of one thousand copies of the proceedings of each convention. The cost thereof would not exceed $150 each year but the effect on the work of the high schools would be worth many times that amount. s Recommendations of the convention. The chief recommendations of the principals convention were as follows: (1) That the State Board of Education maintain the policy of holding one state convention rather than four district conventions of high school principals. (2) That the school laws of the state be codified. (3) That legislation be enacted making all high school certificates granted to inexperienced candidates probationary for the first two years of service. (4) That the University of California be petitioned to establish a higher professional degree in education. (5) That a practice school for teachers-in-training be established by the University of California. (6) That high school library funds be expended by high school boards directly in building up high school libraries. (7) That a plan of visual education for the entire state be provided. The...
