As far as I have been able to learn, this meager volume is the only printed copy of the rules and regulations of the Board of Education which ever existed. Since I have been a member of the Board, numerous efforts have been made to prepare and have adopted a new set of rules; for years a committee on rules existed, and although it did a great deal of work, nothing was ever accomplished. During my term as President from 1898 to 1902, I repeatedly felt the need of a set of rules to govern the Board in its actions, and to advise the public as well as our seven thousand employees of just what the rules were. During Mr. Cooley's incumbency as Superintendent, a great many ordinances have been passed affecting the educational department. These are scattered throughout the Proceedings of the Board, and no collection of them has been made. It is clear that no set of rule could be devised better than those which have been gradually evolved by the necessities of the occasions as they arose. Therefore, I sent the following communication to the Board of Education: Ladies and Gentlemen: - On January 7th, 1903, the Board passed an order directing the various heads of departments to transmit to the Secretary all new rules and resolutions passed by the Board relating to their respective departments. These were referred to...
