Earth and its history have ended and no one knows how or why. All of humanity has been resurrected and scattered among twelve planets in an unknown part of the universe. There is no disease, no bodily imperfections and no aging process. Who has created this perfect system of life What is the purpose of this new life Why is death allowed to continue within this new found paradise Who is this being called God The Soul Machine. A moon of ice that circles the twelve planets and collects the souls of the recently departed. The Machine can build a new human free of physical defects or disease but it cannot remove the most primal of human urges such as murder, love, hate, survival and the desire to rule and wage wars. One man begins a quest to find the true love of his life from old earth before everything was taken from him. He will spend years, countless deaths and resurrections and travel millions of miles across the twelve planets to be with her once more. But when and if he somehow manages to find her will she feel the same way or forsake him This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
